EXTRA HAZARDOIN MITT PAY

- 1. On Vednesday, 2 January 1952, a meeting was held with representatives of the Geographic Divisions to discuss extra hazardous pay and to arrive at an OPC position conserning payments for various types of hazardous duty.
- 2. After considering the various categories of extra hazardous duty which had been submitted previously to the verking Committee on Career Benefite, it was the consensus that OPC should recommend extra payment for the following three broad types of duty:

25X1X4 25X1X4 a. Duty of the type inherently and extremely dangerous to the physical well-being of employees, such as parachute jumping, participation and duty involving participation in

25X1C

- b. Duty in or over geographic areas occupied or controlled by the enemy to an extent that presence in the areas is extra-basardous to CIA employees. Such areas should be designated for the Agency by DD/P. Within this broad category the group recommends that two sub-categories be considered:
 - (1) Duty involving temporary presence in or over such extrabasardous areas.
 - (2) Duty involving relatively long-term presence in such extrahazardous areas.

- 3. It was the consensus that the following extra payments should be made for duty in the broad categories described above:
 - a. Duty of the type described in 2.a. above should be compensated by extra payment of $50.00 for each calendar month during which an applayee engages in such extra-basardous duty one or more times.
 - b. Amployees should be paid $50.00 extra per trip for duty of the type described in 2.b(1) above. Employees should be given extra pay at the rate of 50% of their base pay for the actual time spent in duty of the type described in 2.b(2) above.
